Dear Clients and Partners,

We are writing to inform you that a personal email account associated with our legal firm was recently compromised and used to send unauthorized emails. Please rest assured that all necessary security measures have been implemented, the affected account issue has been fully restored, and our IT consultants adopted additional safeguards to prevent future incidents.

How We Protect Your Information

- All exchange and storage of personally identifiable information and client-specific details are conducted exclusively through secure applications managed by trusted external vendors.
- No sensitive information is stored or exchanged through regular email.

What You Should Do

To ensure your safety and the integrity of our communications, please follow these guidelines:

- Do not share personal or financial information in response to unexpected emails from our firm.
- Do not click on links or download attachments from emails unless you have verified the sender.
- Exchange documents only via secure links and applications provided by our office team.

Contact for Case-Related Inquiries
